

Untitled – Message Ribbon-Review Tab

This ribbon is used to perform different tasks when creating a new message in Outlook. Tasks such as checking spelling and grammar, using the thesaurus, or translating the message into another language can be performed using this ribbon. The table below provides a listing of the groups and buttons on the Review Tab on this ribbon. A description of each button is also provided.

Group/Button	Description
Proofing Group
Spelling &amp; Grammar	To check the spelling and grammar in a message, click this button. The spelling and/or grammar window will display. This window allows you to make corrections to the spelling or grammar in the message.
Research	If this option doesn't show up on the ribbon, it can be accessed by clicking the arrow at the bottom of the Spelling button. It is used to open the Research Task Pane. This Task Pane is used to search through reference materials such as online dictionaries and encyclopedias.
Thesaurus	To search for antonyms and synonyms for a selected word, choose this option. When the button is clicked, the Thesaurus Task Pane will display where the word can be specified.
Word Count	This button is used to determine how many words are in the text area of a Message. When the button is selected, the Word Count dialog box will display showing the number of pages, words, paragraphs, lines, and characters are in the message.
Language Group
Translate	This option is used to translate text in the Message text area to a different language. When this option is selected you can choose to translate selected text or the whole message.
Language	Use this button to set the language for selected text within a Message.
