

MOVE AROUND A DOCUMENT

---

There are several different ways to move around in a document. The list below describes some of these ways.

KEYBOARD METHODS

- † End - Press this key on the keyboard to move the insertion point to the end of a line.
- † Home - To move the insertion point to the beginning of a line, press this keyboard key.
- † CTRL + End - Press this key combination to move the insertion point to the end of a document.
- † CTRL + Home - To move the insertion point to the beginning of a document, press this key combination.
- † Arrow Keys
  - ★ Right, Left, Up, Down - To move the insertion point one character or line at a time, press one of these keys.
  - ★ CTRL + Right Arrow - Press this key combination to move the insertion point one word to the right.
  - ★ CTRL + Left Arrow - To move the insertion point one word to the left, press this key combination.
- † Page Up - To move the document up one screen at a time, press this key.
- † Page Down - Press this key to move the document down one screen at a time.

MOUSE METHODS

Scroll Bars

These bars appear along the right side and the bottom of the document window. They are used to move around the document.

- † Up Scroll Arrow - This arrow is used to move through a document line by line. Just click the arrow to move up in the document.
- † Down Scroll Arrow - This arrow is used to move through a document line by line. Just click the arrow to move down in the document.
- † Scroll Box - This box is used to move through the document. Just click the box and drag the mouse up and down to move around in the document.