

Start Program From Start Menu

The real work to be performed in the Windows 10 environment starts with the software that can be run on the computer. There are several different ways that programs can be started. This section will describe the different ways that a program may be opened from the Start menu.

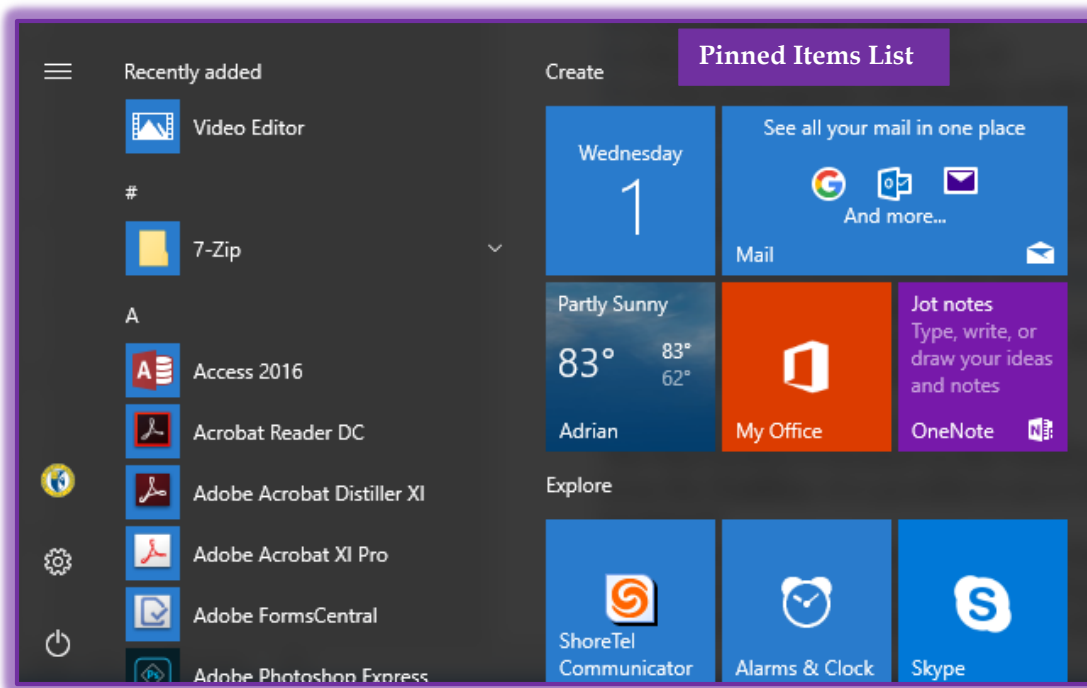

All Programs

- ✦ Click the Start button. This button is located in the lower left corner of the Start Menu.
- ✦ A list of program folders will appear in the left pane.
- ✦ Scroll down the list to locate the program.
- ✦ Click the program that is to be opened.

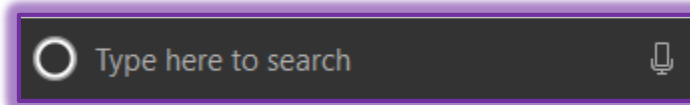

Pinned Items List

- ✦ Click the Start button.
- ✦ In the Pinned Items List click the program that is to be opened.

Search

- ✦ In the Search box, start inputting the name of the program that is to be opened.

- ✦ A list of items matching the word or phrase will appear in the right frame.
 - ✦ Click the program that is to be opened.
- or
- ✦ In the Search box, click the Microphone icon.
 - ✦ State what program is to be opened.
 - ✦ The program will appear at the top of the right side of the Start Menu and then open.