Legal Alternatives for Acquiring Copyrighted Material

The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 requires an Educational institution to offer legal alternatives to illegal downloading or otherwise acquiring copyrighted material. The institution must periodically review the legal alternatives for downloading or otherwise acquiring copyrighted material, and make the results of the review available to its students through a Web site or other means.

To comply with this directive, and to ensure Siena Heights University Students and other constituents have access to the most current legal alternatives, Siena Heights University suggest these links:
